Postmaster General Wanamaker has been criticised for making removals on secret charges. He explains that "in many instances they are upon Inspectors' reports, which, if published, would destroy the future of the man and leave a shadow upon his family." For the same reason "no information is given where the removals are caused by affidavits filed by the people."

The Interlationness likes to agree with the Postmaster General, but cannot agree with him that this course is right and just. There might be reasons why the public should not be informed in special cases. There never can be a reason why the accused shall not be informed, shall not see every word of the charges against him and know by whom
